- properly maintain the product in good working order.

Claims

All warranty claims must be made in writing.

It is at the discretion of Landmark Products Pty Ltd to determine the validity of any claim. Tampering, misuse, or adjustments of any components by unqualified or unauthorised parties will void any claim.

General Information and Exclusions

Landmark Products Pty Ltd guarantees the performance of the Furphy Barbecues under normal use and conditions, and while our barbecues are engineered for public use our warranty specifically excludes vandalism, force majeure events and other conditions out of the manufacturer's control (for example, flooding, fire, theft) .

Where vandalism or force majeure has occurred, the owner takes all necessary steps to restore the product to its original specification.

All flat-pack or unassembled barbecues must be assembled in accordance with the manufacturers instructions. Failure to do so could invalidate the warranty.

Freight, postage or delivery charges are not covered by this warranty, however will be at Landmark Products discretion.

This warranty is limited to the circumstances set out above. The company accepts no responsibility for any failure with respect to the product supplied arising from environmental factors, assembly or installation when not carried out by Landmark Products Pty Ltd or a qualified (or certified) contractor (electrical or plumbing) in line with the barbecues original specifications.

The company shall not be liable on any basis whatsoever for any loss including property and personal loss or consequential loss other than set out above.

The warranty set out above shall be limited to the replacement or repair of the barbecues or the cost of replacement as the company may elect.
